

I would like protection from interference. BPL is known to increase interference to ham bands. I would like there to be protection for this emergency radio spectrum